Here are the directions to the San Francisco Study Session, as well as other necessary information and the day's schedule:

Ham Study Session Directions for Saturday, January 25th, 2020

Please print the attached PDF file and fill out the top half of the Study Session registration form. If for some reason you don't have the sign-in form, they will be available at the class. This will speed up the paper work at the beginning of the session. This is going to be a large group, so please have the form filled out and completed payment with you when you sign in.

If you can't make it please let us know; the class usually fills and we have to turn people away, spots that we can re-use if we know.

The Fee is $35.00 for this session, pay at the session, cash or check (no credit cards). This covers the cost of the study materials and the FCC exam and license fee.

Make checks payable to: Ross Peterson

Bring the sign-in form and check or cash with you. Please don't mail or fax them in.

We MUST check 2 forms of ID, one must be a picture ID. You MUST have your Social Security Number, TIN or FCC FRN available for the license application, the application can't be processed without both. For those of you who do not wish to give us a Social Security number, you may go the FCC website at: <http://wireless.fcc.gov/uls/about/gettingstarted1.html> to register for a FRN (you will need to give them your Social Security Number.

For those of you who don't have a sponsor, leave that part blank, we will help you locate a sponsor at the session.

If you have a current amateur Radio license and are planning to upgrade, please bring a copy of your current license that we can keep to send in with your upgrade package.

If you wish to take the Extra exam, you MUST study prior to the session. The question pool is too large to cover in one day of study. Feel free to join us for additional study and bring your study materials. the exam fee is $14.00.

The building will be open at 8:00 AM and we will start sign-in then. The session introduction will start promptly at 8:30. Please don't be late, if you miss the orientation it will be extremely difficult to catch up.

The session will be at:

Archbishop Riordan High School
175 Phelan Ave. (at Ocean)
San Francisco, 94112

Plenty of parking is available.

~~Directly south of the main entrance to the college is a large mural of the city of San Francisco. The mural is a colorful and detailed representation of the city, showing the Golden Gate Bridge, the Bay Bridge, and the city skyline. The mural is a popular attraction for visitors to the college.~~
